

Employee: Diana Modlin

Diana was born in Canton, Illinois. While working for the State Highway Department she met John Modlin. She will tell you that he chased her till he caught her. He will tell you she chased him till she caught him. Either way it was a match that was meant to be. Their first date was in January, they were engaged in April and married in August! It was not a shotgun wedding for those of you who might be wondering. They lived in Springfield and then moved back to Macomb so John could attend WIU. After graduating they moved again and he taught Industrial Arts for two years. Macomb drew them back and they eventually both worked at Bower. Throughout the years Diana also worked at TGY, ARA Food Services and McGraw Edison. She retired at Bower after 31 ½ years.

John and Diana have two children, Shari and Scott. They have a granddaughter, Kelsi Joe.

Through the years Diana has enjoyed, going places with John, eating out, doing word search books, reading short stories, and watching movies. She also loves to cook and try out new recipes on John. Diana has always had a love for horses and dogs.

We are very thankful to have Diana back here at Everly. She is a good friend to both residents and employees.
