

Creative and Crafty

Last month everyone had a good time making winter flower arrangements out of cookie tins. They turned out really pretty. We used them for decorations at our monthly party. Then the ladies could use them to decorate their own rooms or to give them away as gifts.

The women shown here are real troopers. They not only participate in our weekly craft projects, they also work along with several other residents to create the monthly decorations used for our bulletin boards and the name tags used on the dining tables. I have to admit I keep them very busy. Thankfully they seem to enjoy the many projects they are asked to produce.

MY VICTORY SONG by Abimbola T. Alabi

God's love sets me free.
This is my victory song.
His grace is sufficient for me.
It is what keeps me strong.
For I'm no perfect man,
And on my own cannot prevail.
Sometimes doing the best I can,
Even will seem to no avail.
Had my share of heartaches,
Sometimes wondering to what end.
Made my share of mistakes.
Over this, I can't pretend.
The struggles may increase,
But it's no cause for alarm.
God's thoughts to me are of peace,
To nurture and not to harm.
I forge on quite resolved.
God's at work in me for the best.
I am flawed but fiercely loved,
And He is not finished yet.
God's perfect plan for me,
I may not fully understand.
But trusting, obeying, I'm grateful to be,
resting in His loving hand.
