

Everly Staff: Marvin Phelps

Marvin is 54 years old. He was born and raised in McDonough County and lived in Colchester his whole life. His grandfather, Sam Cook, and his uncle, Hughey Martin, owned the Colchester Sales Barn. His uncle, Jim Cook was also an auctioneer. His Aunt, Frances Guy, was a hairdresser. When he was young, Marvin enjoyed cooking and baking. He graduated from High School in 1990. In 1996 He attended cosmetology school in Keokuk, Iowa at Dayton School of Hair Design. After graduation He worked in Macomb at a salon for 1 ½ years. Then he went to teach at the school he had attended. After realizing that he liked working on hair more than teaching he started his own salon, Marvin's Hair Hut. It is located in the old barber shop in Colchester. He has owned this business for 26 years in June.

In his spare time, Marvin likes playing bingo, going to the casino, going out to eat, and shopping.

Marvin started doing hair at Everly several years ago and eventually started working in the office as well. He enjoys all of the residents. You seem like family to him. We are very happy to have Marvin working here. He has been a wonderful addition to the Everly staff.

JESUS CHRIST THE SON OF GOD our Savior so complete

With love so strong He gave His life this Lamb of God so meek

His sacrifice redeemed mankind He paid for all our sin

So we could believe He is Lord and become born again

Then we too are sons of God His Spirit dwells inside

And we are one with God and Christ in us they both abide

They've given an inheritance worth more than earthly treasure

Life eternal, spiritual power and love beyond all measure

HE IS RISEN
alleluia
